

Chuma: Swahili word meaning "Strong as Iron"

Birthname: Mandara, a Swahili word meaning "leader"

Birthplace: A small village outside of Ghana, West Africa

Family: Chuma has a mother, father, and brother living in the village he was born in.

Occupation: Chuma is a teacher and the head of a school in his home village.

Education: Chuma was educated in Ghana and continued his education in various schools around the world.

Super Powers: Chuma possesses incredible strength. He is impervious to pain and has super lung capacity that allows him to hold his breath for great lengths of time and blow powerful bursts of air. He possesses heightened intellect and leadership skills.

