

Afiya: Swahili word meaning "Health"

Birthname: Shaafi Stewart. "Shaafi" is a Swahili word meaning "healer".

Birthplace: A small poor community outside of Kingston, Jamaica.

Family: Shaafi's father is alive and living in Kingston.

Her mother died when she was young. Her husband passed away due to an unknown illness that she was not able to cure despite all of her medical training. This is something that has been an ongoing inner struggle for Afiya for she feels she should have been able to save her husband. Just before his death though Shaafi gave birth to their only child Zuvena which is Swahili for "small and beautiful".

Occupation: Shaafi is a doctor in the community she grew up in.

Education: Shaafi was educated by her foremothers in the ancient art of healing. She also attended medical school in Jamaica.

Super Powers: Afiya possesses spiritual powers that allow her to perform feats that prevent any threat to the health or well being of herself or any other living creature. She also possesses E.S.P.(Extra Sensory Perception) and the ability to fly.

